

Question: Hannah, tell us about your Cardigan Summer School experience...

Hannah: "It was my first time at Cardigan and I loved it—it was so fun. It wasn't just school...every day was different; there were a bunch of fun activities and I bonded with my dorm buddies in Clark Morgan II.

Q: What was your favorite activity?

Hannah: Sailing. It was my first time sailing, and I loved it! I can't wait 'til next summer to do it again. Mr. Harmes was a great teacher. He was in charge of math and sailing.

Q: What was it about sailing that really excited you the most?

Hannah: I loved the feeling of being on the edge when the boat leans into the wind...that felt so awesome.

Q: What classes did you choose?

Hannah: I took drama, note-taking, organization 101, math and chorus.

Q: Which class was your favorite?

Hannah: Math. I love math and I got a 1 in it. My second favorite was drama.

Q: What was your favorite lunch?

Hannah: The salad bar and peanut butter and jelly sandwiches.

Q: Tell us about your drama debut...

Hannah: I acted in two productions: Rumpelstiltskin and What a Tangled Web We Weave. I was the lead in Rumpelstiltskin, and I played Mr. Quigley in the second play.

Q: Did you make new friends?

Hannah: Oh yes, lots. I made friends from all over the world. I chat online with my friend from Seoul, Korea. But, I also made friends with girls and boys from the Dominican Republic, Colombia and Louisiana.

Q: Do you want to learn a new language?

Hannah: I want to learn Spanish, all my friends speak it. I'll definitely take Spanish next summer as a class.

Q: What would you tell someone who wanted to know more about summer school?

Hannah: Cardigan Summer School is so fun. You meet tons of new friends and you get to do stuff you'd never try on your own.

Q: Would you come back next summer?

Hannah: Yes, definitely. I loved Cardigan!
